THE MONTREAL INSTITUTE FOR GENOCIDE AND HUMAN RIGHTS STUDIES
INVITES YOU TO A WORKSHOP

ALEX SHOUMATOFF

CONTRIBUTING EDITOR
VANITY FAIR MAGAZINE

EXPLAINING GENOCIDE IN RWANDA: THE USES AND PERILS OF HISTORY

* * * * * * *

FRIDAY/18 FEBRUARY 2000
12 NOON
THE McCONNELL LIBRARY BUILDING/ROOM LB-608
1400 BLVD. DE MAISONNEUVE

* * * * * * *

ALEX SHOUMATOFF, a contributing editor for Vanity Fair magazine, is the author of ten books, including Russian Blood (1980), African Madness (1988), Legends of the American Desert (1995) and more. Mr. Shoumatoff, who did his Bachelor's degree at Harvard University, was a staff writer for the New Yorker magazine from 1978 to1990. Currently, he is at work on a book for Harper-Collins dealing with the history of his Rwandese wife's family and clan, which is the clan of the King of Rwanda.